Employer Engagement with the BILT Model

The Business & Industry Leadership Team Model Offers:

- Advisory Committee 2.0 - empowering you to move employer relationships to the next level
- A structured, repeatable process that can be used for any technical program
- A model that puts employers in a co-leadership role that greatly increases their engagement with your program

NATIONAL
CONVERGENCE
TECHNOLOGY CENTER

Roots of BILT Model

National Science Foundation (NSF)
supported National Convergence
Technology Center

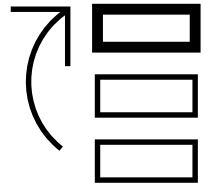

Based at Collin College (TX) [2012-2022]

Established BILT model through work with business leaders from across the nation to determine the Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities that “workforce ready” graduates will need

Model implemented at more than 100 colleges in multiple disciplines.

US DOL and ED recognize BILT as a leading model for strategic employer engagement

Major Goals for Institutions of Higher Ed and US Employers

STUDENTS complete certificates and degrees and are well-qualified for ready employment or transfer

EMPLOYERS are highly engaged and want to hire students

Implementing Business & Industry Leadership Team (BILT)
Model proven effective to meet both goals

Essential Roles in the BILT Model

Businesses

- Co-lead college programs (like cybersecurity or mechatronics) through quarterly meetings
- Annually prioritize Knowledge, Skills and Abilities (KSAs) they want graduates to have 12-36 months into the future using a structured, repeatable voting process
- Predict Labor Market Demand
- Identify industry trends that could impact the program

Faculty

- Cross reference KSAs to existing curriculum
- Update curriculum to address KSAs prioritized by businesses
- Provide businesses with feedback regarding implementation

ESSENTIAL ELEMENT: Co-Leadership

Employers report they are more likely to hire graduates from programs for which they have curricular leadership responsibility

Employers report they will assume this role (and more) if:

- Their time is respected
- There is a method for ensuring their input is consistently and seriously considered by faculty members
- They consistently receive feedback on their recommendations

BILT

Annual Cycle

Employer Opportunity Poster Activity

Similar elements of Career Pathways and RAP

Classroom instruction integrated with rigorous academic, technical, and employability skills

Program curricula vetted by employers

Classroom instruction reinforced by hands-on learning

A connected education and credentialing model

Models of Alignment

Students learn about apprenticeship opportunities that are available after completing high school or adult education program

Secondary or adult education program operates as a pre-apprenticeship that gives students preferred entry into a RAP

Students start a RA program while in high school or adult education and upon graduation continue as apprentices

Curricula Integration

- Delivery of apprenticeship's related technical instruction (RTI) within classroom or

- Student participation in apprenticeship RTI outside the school setting

Whatever the approach, it is important to address any potential student barriers and consider requirements that can be fulfilled.

In well-articulated pathways, college-level and honors/advanced courses are integrated with opportunities to develop “real-world” and technical skills—and available to all students. Policymakers and local education leaders have the opportunity to change these perceptions by more clearly demonstrating how all students can access and combine a variety of different types of educational opportunities, and the potential advantages of doing so. They can also make it a priority to ensure that such pathways are, in reality, feasible and that common barriers to access (again, scheduling conflicts, limited program or class availability) are mitigated if not eliminated.

“I did not even know that these programs were an option in high school. It would have been nice to actively learn about different careers rather than just hearing about them.”

We don't ask kids what they want to be when they grow up; we ask them what problems they want to solve when they leave school.

Continuous Improvement

Why is this important?

Enables you to:

- Identify specific aspects of the program that are working well and what needs to improve
- Share program successes and improvement efforts with stakeholders
- Design and deliver a better program
- Enhance the experiences and outcomes of learners
- Meet employer needs and expectations
- Ensures CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

Continuous Improvement Process

Start early!!

Create a plan as you are designing the pathway

Align strategies to expected program outcomes and goals

Include a process for monitoring and analyzing on a continual basis

Ask questions like:

- How can instructors better integrate the adult education content with the workforce training content?
- How can we ensure there is equitable access to the training and learner supports, resulting in equitable outcomes?
- How can we build evidence that helps us determine whether the program is valuable—to the community, to businesses, to the learners?
- What data or data source(s) do we need to determine whether we accomplished our goals?

Strategies for Successful Pathways

- Engage the right people from the start
- Include employer engagement strategies (like a BILT) to ensure occupations you're training for are really in demand
- Map your program and review regularly
- Identify changing learner needs and align supports
- Create a process to monitor the career pathway
- Gather and use data to track student success
- Develop a plan for continuous improvement
